The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

- |    |   |
|----|---|
| 1. | On August 9, 2009, the offender submitted a urine sample which tested positive for cocaine. At that time, the offender, who was under supervision with the New Jersey State Parole Office, reported to their office and also submitted a urine sample which tested positive for cocaine. The New Jersey State Parole commission issued a violation of parole warrant, based on the positive urine sample. On September 3, 2009, the offender was arrested and incarcerated for violating the conditions of his State Parole. The offender was subsequently released from the New Jersey Department of Corrections on January 6, 2010. |
| 2. | On February 16, the offender reported to the United States Probation Office in Newark, and submitted a urine sample which tested positive for cocaine.  |

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Regarding violation number 1; the United States Probation Office believes that a period of incarceration of 176 days was an appropriate sanction for submitting a urine sample which tested positive for cocaine.

In regards to violation number 2; the offender has been referred to the United States Probation Office Code a Phone urine monitoring program, and to the Integrity House outpatient drug and alcohol treatment program for both group and individual counseling.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
Donald G. Hewins
Senior U.S. Probation Officer
